Presenter
Doug Fryett

Doug had his first book published, "An Introduction to the Food Service Industry," which is used as the basis for NAFEM's CFSP (Certified Food Service Professional) program and seminar which he developed, and is the sole instructor for the program. Within the past two years he completed and published the first UK edition of this book which was specifically geared towards the English market and is used as the basis for CESA's (Catering Equipment Suppliers Association) CFSP program. Doug just recently finished working on a Swedish version of the book as he works with CESA in "exporting" the CFSP program throughout Europe, the Middle East and parts of Asia.

In 2017 NAFES will be launching the New CFSP Australian Program with Doug Fryett presenting.
